

I am a postgraduate research student at Oxford Brookes University. I am contacting you as the rights holder or author to ask for permission to include the following in the online version of my PhD thesis.

[Note to students]

In this section provide a full reference and details of the extract or image you want to use, for example:

Map: 'The site of Oxford Castle today' in Geoffrey Tyack Oxford: an architectural guide Oxford: Oxford University Press, 1998, p. 6

Chichester workhouse, 2001. in The Workhouse [online]. 2011. [Accessed 27 February 2012]. Available from <http://www.workhouses.org.uk/buildings/>

[End of note to students]

The thesis will be made available online via the Oxford Brookes University institutional repository RADAR (<https://radar.brookes.ac.uk/radar/home.do>) and the British Library online service for UK theses, EThOS (<http://ethos.bl.uk>). These services are non-commercial and openly available to all.

If you are not the rights holder for this material I would be grateful if you would advise me who to contact.
